Nylon, Abundant Water Amaze Jordan Visitor

The nylon and synthetic materials and the abundance of running water, especially hot water, enjoyed by the people of America, will be two of the many interesting stories to be told by Mrs. Arpin Etyemanzian who left Thursday for her home in Amman, Jordan.

The visitor has been here for the past two months with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bahije Azzouni, 2728 Arlington. She arrived from her long journey on the night her granddaughter, Tanya Azzouni, was born.

In her country, Mrs. Etyemanzian is a trained nurse and helps in the Refugee Relief center two days a week in Amman. She speaks five languages—French, English, Arabic, Armenian and Turkish. Her husband is a doctor in the Jordanian Army.

Their daughter, Mrs. Azzouni, came to America three years ago and attended El Ca-
